

COTTON FIELDS
PRETTY SIGHT

El Paso, N. M., June 5.—What is considered the best looking cotton field in the district, and one which is attracting considerable attention, is on the R. L. Smith farm. Mr. Smith has 25 acres planted in this crop and the plants are in fine shape and show what cultivation and care will do. There is scarcely a weed. Mr. Smith is experienced in cotton culture and is pleased with the prospects.

AMERICAN VICE CONSUL GOES BACK TO CHIHUAHUA CITY

Steve Aguirre, for several years vice consul at Juarez, who was recently transferred to the American consulate at Chihuahua City, and who has been on a leave of absence for the past month, will return to El Paso Wednesday from Long Beach, Calif. The following day he will leave for Chihuahua City, where he will reside in the future.

Mrs. Aguirre and baby, whom Mr. Aguirre accompanied to Long Beach, because of the baby's health, will remain there until fall as the guest of relatives. She will join Mr. Aguirre in Chihuahua City later.

"Walk a Block and Save the Difference"

Suits

PALM BEACH,
MOHAIR AND
KOOL KLOTH

Just arrived—in stylish models and durable fabrics. We have them for both the elderly and the young men.

PRICES

$12, $15
and $18

WARDROBE SPECIAL

$45

$45.00

See this before buying anywhere.

THE BAZAAR
TRUNK STORE

218 S. El Paso Street. Opposite Alhambra Theater.
INDESTRUCTO, BELBER, MURPHY AND ROSE TRUNKS.

ACADEMY HOLDS
GOLDEN JUBILEE

Las Cruces, N. M., June 5.—Loretto academy is celebrating its golden jubilee. A number of out of town guests are present for this occasion, among whom are Dr. Rev. A. J. Schuler and Rev. D. J. Westlake, S. J., of El Paso. The commencement exercises were held Monday night. There were two graduates, Mary Esther Partridge and Mary Ethel McBride. Miss Partridge presented the salutatory and Miss McBride the valedictory. Bishop Schuler conferred the diploma and the address of the evening was given by Rev. Fr. Foulke.

The Loretto girls presented "The Bells of Corvillie" in the Loretto hall last night.

Las Cruces is planning an auto race on the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Lee Woodson and daughter, Miss Corrine, left yesterday for a trip east.

A meeting of the Woman's Improvement association was held in the community house Monday afternoon.

What is "Spring Fever?"

It is simply low vitality, a lack of energy caused by impure blood.

Give TARTLETON'S CHILL TONIC restores vitality and energy by purifying and enriching the blood. You can soon feel its strengthening, invigorating effect. 50c.—Adv.

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers—No pain.

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezzone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Frezzone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Frezzone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.—Adv.

Sons' Deaths
Thwart Hopes
Of Many Years

Life's outlook was bright for Tiburcia Marlan. It was true she was a widow with many small children, but that did not worry her for it was not a fact that her manly son, Canuto, had a job in the furnace yard at Fort Bliss. He was a member of a quantity, more than enough to feed all their mouths; yes, and buy a new dress apiece for them every year.

Par more money than her poor dead husband had ever made in Mexico, where people were given pennies.

Living Was a Pleasure.

The United States was a wonderful place after all, for poor Tiburcia. And her noble son, Canuto, ah, what would they all do if it were not for Canuto? He was a saint without habits, and he gave all his money, every cent of it, to keep the little home together.

And the money made in this great new country, to which they had but recently come, afforded other things to eat besides frijoles and tortillas. Living was a pleasure.

And then one day there was delivered from an ambulance at Tiburcia's door. Tiburcia was a married man from that time on.

Canuto was a noble boy who had but that summer left her with a laugh on his lips. Canuto always laughed. It had been an accident, they told her. They may have told her how it had happened. She could not remember. She did not remember much of anything for many days.

After a time, in the midst of her grief she realized that there were many little mouths that must have food. And Canuto, Tiburcia must make the best of it. And besides God had not taken all. He had left her Tiburcia. True he was a little more than a baby, but he was her son and all the rest of her children were girls. Tiburcia must provide for them. She would work and starve for him, in order that one day he would grow big and strong to take the place of poor Canuto.

Only One Ray of Light.

The four years that followed are not pleasant to think of. Tiburcia had not become friendly with any of the Americans. She might possibly get some help from her own people, and as she moved to Juarez, her people there were sympathetic, but those that she knew were poor like herself and could do little to help her. Day and night was a continual, terrible struggle for existence.

Tiburcia worked and slaved, and managed somehow to provide for the hungry little mouths. It didn't matter if she went without; they had enough to eat, at least most of the time.

And in all of this terrible want and misery, there was one comfort that Tiburcia had. Tiburcia was a married man from that time on.

Canuto was a noble boy who had but that summer left her with a laugh on his lips. Canuto always laughed. It had been an accident, they told her. They may have told her how it had happened. She could not remember. She did not remember much of anything for many days.

After a time, in the midst of her grief she realized that there were many little mouths that must have food. And Canuto, Tiburcia must make the best of it. And besides God had not taken all. He had left her Tiburcia. True he was a little more than a baby, but he was her son and all the rest of her children were girls. Tiburcia must provide for them. She would work and starve for him, in order that one day he would grow big and strong to take the place of poor Canuto.

Only One Ray of Light.

The four years that followed are not pleasant to think of. Tiburcia had not become friendly with any of the Americans. She might possibly get some help from her own people, and as she moved to Juarez, her people there were sympathetic, but those that she knew were poor like herself and could do little to help her. Day and night was a continual, terrible struggle for existence.

Tiburcia worked and slaved, and managed somehow to provide for the hungry little mouths. It didn't matter if she went without; they had enough to eat, at least most of the time.

And in all of this terrible want and misery, there was one comfort that Tiburcia had. Tiburcia was a married man from that time on.

Canuto was a noble boy who had but that summer left her with a laugh on his lips. Canuto always laughed. It had been an accident, they told her. They may have told her how it had happened. She could not remember. She did not remember much of anything for many days.

After a time, in the midst of her grief she realized that there were many little mouths that must have food. And Canuto, Tiburcia must make the best of it. And besides God had not taken all. He had left her Tiburcia. True he was a little more than a baby, but he was her son and all the rest of her children were girls. Tiburcia must provide for them. She would work and starve for him, in order that one day he would grow big and strong to take the place of poor Canuto.

Only One Ray of Light.

The four years that followed are not pleasant to think of. Tiburcia had not become friendly with any of the Americans. She might possibly get some help from her own people, and as she moved to Juarez, her people there were sympathetic, but those that she knew were poor like herself and could do little to help her. Day and night was a continual, terrible struggle for existence.

Tiburcia worked and slaved, and managed somehow to provide for the hungry little mouths. It didn't matter if she went without; they had enough to eat, at least most of the time.

And in all of this terrible want and misery, there was one comfort that Tiburcia had. Tiburcia was a married man from that time on.

Canuto was a noble boy who had but that summer left her with a laugh on his lips. Canuto always laughed. It had been an accident, they told her. They may have told her how it had happened. She could not remember. She did not remember much of anything for many days.

After a time, in the midst of her grief she realized that there were many little mouths that must have food. And Canuto, Tiburcia must make the best of it. And besides God had not taken all. He had left her Tiburcia. True he was a little more than a baby, but he was her son and all the rest of her children were girls. Tiburcia must provide for them. She would work and starve for him, in order that one day he would grow big and strong to take the place of poor Canuto.

Only One Ray of Light.

The four years that followed are not pleasant to think of. Tiburcia had not become friendly with any of the Americans. She might possibly get some help from her own people, and as she moved to Juarez, her people there were sympathetic, but those that she knew were poor like herself and could do little to help her. Day and night was a continual, terrible struggle for existence.

Tiburcia worked and slaved, and managed somehow to provide for the hungry little mouths. It didn't matter if she went without; they had enough to eat, at least most of the time.

And in all of this terrible want and misery, there was one comfort that Tiburcia had. Tiburcia was a married man from that time on.

Canuto was a noble boy who had but that summer left her with a laugh on his lips. Canuto always laughed. It had been an accident, they told her. They may have told her how it had happened. She could not remember. She did not remember much of anything for many days.

After a time, in the midst of her grief she realized that there were many little mouths that must have food. And Canuto, Tiburcia must make the best of it. And besides God had not taken all. He had left her Tiburcia. True he was a little more than a baby, but he was her son and all the rest of her children were girls. Tiburcia must provide for them. She would work and starve for him, in order that one day he would grow big and strong to take the place of poor Canuto.

Only One Ray of Light.

The four years that followed are not pleasant to think of. Tiburcia had not become friendly with any of the Americans. She might possibly get some help from her own people, and as she moved to Juarez, her people there were sympathetic, but those that she knew were poor like herself and could do little to help her. Day and night was a continual, terrible struggle for existence.

Tiburcia worked and slaved, and managed somehow to provide for the hungry little mouths. It didn't matter if she went without; they had enough to eat, at least most of the time.

And in all of this terrible want and

FLAG DAY LINE OF MARCH GIVEN

If El Paso doesn't wax enthusiastic and display its enthusiasm in a parade of color and series of flag day events on June 14, it won't be the fault of Mayor Charles Davis. He has made money of a quantity, more than enough to feed all their mouths; yes, and buy a new dress apiece for them every year.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

Parade forms at Mesa avenue and Main street south on Mesa to Mills street, west to Oregon street, south to San Antonio street, east to Campbell street, and north to Main street.

NO NEW TRIAL
FOR BLANCETT

Santa Fe, N. M., June 5.—The date set for the execution of Robert W. Blancett will not be fixed by the New Mexico supreme court until the return to Santa Fe of his counsel, A. R. Honan, on Friday or Saturday. The mandate from the U. S. supreme court, dismissing the appeal, has been received, but the court desires to have counsel for the defendant present when the date for the hanging is set. It must be within 30 days.

Blancett murdered Clyde D. Armour in the northern part of this county in the fall of 1916, but Armour's body was not discovered for several months. Armour, a resident of Sioux City, Ia., was traveling overland to California. In Denver he picked up Blancett, a motor car.

An unconditional pardon has been issued by Governor Larrazolo to General Harvey of Santa Fe. Harvey was convicted of burglary in August, 1915, and was sentenced to serve not more than three years. He was held in the prison for the remainder of his term.

Appeals have been dismissed by the New Mexico supreme court in three cases from Santa Fe county, one case has been reversed and remanded to the district court for a new trial. The cases are by Justice Roberts, Chief Justice Parker and Justice Haymond. The cases are by Justice Roberts, Chief Justice Parker and Justice Haymond.

The Kiwanians from Houston and two from Fort Worth were guests of the El Paso Kiwanis club at its luncheon Wednesday morning at the Hotel Sheldon. The Houston Kiwanians form a glee club and are on their way to the national convention in Portland, Ore. They are accompanied by a professional troupe of performers furnished the entertainment for the luncheon.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

The feature performance at the luncheon was a song by Miss Dorothy Friend. Miss Friend, although only 17 years old, is a musical comedy star. Her song was "The Little Girl Who Lives Next Door." She was accompanied by Miss Friend.

FORMER EL PASO PHYSICIAN
DIES AT FORT WORTH TEX.

Dr. H. A. Magruder received word of the death of his father, Dr. W. B. Magruder, a retired physician, at Fort Worth, Texas, on Saturday, June 5. Dr. Magruder had been a resident of El Paso for seven years up to three years ago. He was a member of the Masons here and of the First Baptist church. His death followed an illness of about three months. He is survived by his mother, Dr. H. A. Magruder, two sons, H. B. Magruder of Fort Worth and H. L. Magruder of Houston and a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Gould of Fort Worth. Burial will be in San Angelo.

Rockland, Mo., June 5.—The torpedo boat destroyer Batteries broke all American records for speed today as they made a run off this coast, when she made a mile at the rate of 23.57 knots an hour. The best previous record of 22.5 knots was held by the destroyers Dent and Wickes.

Hotel
Laughlin

311 W. FRANKLIN ST.

Situated just 3 short blocks east from Union Depot. The Laughlin Hotel is ideal for the tourist. It offers every modern convenience—plus a combination of excellent service and hospitality. Rates exceptionally reasonable.

Charles B. Milliken, Prop.

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Take $2.00 to the nearest dealer and buy a suit of

Is Your Lawn
Well Kept?

The appearance of the home is made or marred by the aspect of the grounds around it. A well kept lawn adds so much to the home that it is a good investment.

Your lawn can be kept looking at its best if you have a good

Lawn Mower

Let us show you the advantages of our line of lawn mowers. We carry the Devere, the All Day and the paragon of all lawn mowers—the Philadelphia, Ball Bearing.

Grass Catchers

Your lawn mower fitted with a grass catcher cuts the work in two. They gather the grass as it is cut. We have them in various sizes.

Grass Cutters

To trim the edge of the lawn and out of the way places a grass cutter is a necessity. Here you will find a number of patterns from which to select.

Lawn Hose

One of the most important things for maintaining a successful lawn or garden is a hose. You should have enough to reach every corner of your lawn or garden. We have a fresh stock of guaranteed hose in all grades of cotton covered and rubber hose, ranging in price at the foot from 15c to 25c.

Refrigerators

You are invited to investigate the merits of the McCray Refrigerator. We have a refrigerator to fill your requirements as to size and price.

Household Hardware Co.

The Store Where Shopping Is a Pleasure.